Welcome to

Rondeklip Organics

At Rondeklip Organics, we are committed to the art of botanical medicinal preparation.

Our time-tested ethanolic extraction method ensures that every drop of our extracts contains both the essence and strength of nature's remedies.

We believe in taking the "good" and the "bad" together, just as nature intended.

The Rondeklip Difference

Our dedication to quality means that all our botanical medicines are prepared with the same rigorous methods, guaranteeing consistency and effectiveness.

We've explored various ethanol percentages in the extraction process, and the results have consistently delivered the same outstanding quality.
